The Client acknowledges that access to electronic systems / trading platforms may be limited or unavailable due to such system errors, and that the Company reserves its right upon notifying the Client to suspend access to electronic systems / trading platforms for this reason.

The Company has the right, unilaterally and with immediate effect, to suspend or withdraw permanently Client's ability to use any Electronic Service, or any part thereof, without notice, where the Company consider it necessary or advisable to do so, for example due to Client's non-compliance with the Applicable Regulations, breach of any provisions of this Agreement, on the occurrence of an Event of Default, network problems, failure of power supply, for maintenance, or to protect the Client when there has been a breach of security.

8. ORDERS – INSTRUCTIONS AND BASIS OF DEALINGS

a) Reception and Execution of Transactions

- i. The Company may, in certain circumstances, accept instructions, by telephone via the Company's Dealing Room, provided that the Company is satisfied, at its full discretion, of the Client's identity and the Company is further also satisfied with the clarity of instructions. In case of an Order received by the Company in any means other than through the Trading Platform, the Order will be transmitted by the Company to the Trading Platform and processed as if it was received through the Trading Platform.
- ii. It is understood that an Order will not be affected until it is actually considered received by the Company. It is noted that in this Agreement, instructions and orders have the same meaning.
- iii. In the event that the Company wishes to confirm in any manner any instructions and/or Orders and/or communications sent through the telephone, it reserves the right to do so. The Client accepts that there is a risk of misinterpretation or mistakes in the instructions or Orders sent through the telephone, regardless of what caused them, including, among others, technical failures.

- iv. Once the Client's instructions or Orders are received by the Company, they cannot be revoked, except with the Company's written consent which may be given at the Company's sole and absolute discretion. The Company reserves its right not to accept Client's Orders, in its absolute discretion, and in such a case the Company shall not be obliged to give a reason, but it shall promptly notify the Client accordingly.
- v. The transaction (opening or closing a position) is executed at the "BID" / "ASK" prices offered to the Client. The Client chooses the position he wishes to take and makes a request to receive a transaction confirmation by the Company. The transaction is executed at the prices the Client can see on the screen. Due to the high volatility of the markets during the confirmation process the price may change, and the Company has the right to offer the Client a new price. In the event the Company offers the Client a new price the Client can either accept the new price and execute the transaction or refuse the new price, thus cancelling the execution of the transaction.
- vi. The Company shall take all sufficient steps to execute any order promptly, but in accepting the Client's orders the Company does not represent or warrant that it will be possible to execute such order or that execution will be possible according to the Client's instructions. Without prejudice to the Company's regulatory obligations of best execution, and all sufficient steps taken to ensure price and execution continuity, in case the Company encounters any material difficulty in carrying out an order on Client's behalf, for example in case the market is closed and/or due to illiquidity in financial instruments, the Company shall promptly notify the Client. The Client agrees that the Company may execute an order on the Client's behalf outside a regulated market. Moreover, the Client acknowledges that where they give the Company a specific instruction, the Company shall execute the order following the specific instruction which may not lead to the best possible result.
- vii. The following orders are available to the Client through the Trading Platform:
 - 1. Open position
 - 2. Close position
 - 3. Orders for stop loss, Take profit, Pending Orders - Buy Limit, Buy Stop, Sell Limit, Sell Stop Orders can be placed, executed, changed or removed only within the operating (trading) time and shall remain effective through the next trading session. The Client's Order shall be valid and in accordance with the type and time of the given Order, as specified. If the time of validity of the Order is not specified, it shall be valid for an indefinite period.
- viii. The Company may require the Client to limit the number of open positions which the Client may have with the Company at any time and the Company may in its sole discretion close out any one or more Transactions to ensure that such position limits are maintained. The position limits will be notified in advance to the Client either through the Company's website or trading platforms.
- ix. The Company has the right to set control limits in relation to Client's orders at its own and absolute discretion. Such limits may be amended, removed or added and may include without limitation: (a) controls over maximum order amount and size; (b) controls over the Company's total exposure to the Client; (iii) controls over prices at which orders may be placed; (iv) controls over the electronic systems and/or trading platforms to verify for example the Client's identity during the receipt of the order; or (v) any other limits, parameters or controls which the Company may deem required to be implemented in accordance with Applicable Regulations.

- x. There may be restrictions on the number of Transactions that the Client can enter into on any one day and also in terms of the total value of those Transactions when using an Electronic Service. The Client acknowledges that some Markets place restrictions on the types of orders that can be directly transmitted to their electronic trading systems.

These types of orders are sometimes described as synthetic orders. The transmission of synthetic orders to the Market is dependent upon the accurate and timely receipt of prices or quotes from the relevant Market or market data provider. The Client acknowledges that a Market may cancel a synthetic order when upgrading its systems, trading screens may drop the record of such an order, and the Client enters such orders at his own risk. The Client shall refer to the Company's website for details of the restrictions / limits imposed on Transactions performed through its electronic systems and/or trading platforms.

b) Confirmations

c) Authorization of third person to give instructions on behalf of a Client

- i. The Client has the right to authorize a third person to give instructions and/or Orders to the Company or to handle any other matters related to this Agreement, provided that the Client has notified the Company in writing that such a right shall be exercised by a third party and that this person is approved by the Company and fulfils all of Company's conditions to allow this.
- ii. In case the Client has authorised a third person as mentioned in Section (i) above, it is agreed that in the event that the Client wishes to terminate the authorisation, it is the Client's full responsibility to notify the Company of such decision in writing. In any other case, the Company will assume that the authorisation is still ongoing and will continue accepting instructions and/or Orders given by the authorised person on behalf of the Client.

In relation to our Shares Investing Account

The Company may act as principal or on a matched principal basis when providing you with the securities trading services. This means the Company will be the counterparty to Clients' trades.

We execute your transactions outside a regulated market or an MTF. Whilst this approach allows us to consistently source the best price for your orders it brings with it a greater counterparty and settlement risk compared to trading on exchange.

As previously mentioned, the Company's trading platform is not an exchange or a market. This means that you can only enter into trades and investments with us on the platform, and not third parties. Therefore, our services are limited to you buying a security on our platform, and selling that security on our platform. You will not be able to transfer the securities out of your account, including for the purposes of selling that security on another platform or to another person.

In respect of transactions executed on a share investing account, execution in shares can be effected 'on exchange' or 'at quote'. With regards to certain type of shares, typically small and micro caps, this 'request for quote' methodology of execution is the only one available for electronic execution. Settlement and counterparty credit risk exist in this method of execution. This means you could experience delays in settlement as well as non-delivery where the counterparty is unable to meet its obligations because of market structure deficiencies or insolvency.

We execute your orders as soon as reasonably practicable, but sometimes there will be a delay between when we receive your order and when we are able to execute it. Where a delay occurs, there may be a difference between the market price of the securities that you were quoted and the market price on the exchange, which may or may not be to your benefit. The exchange is not required to accept your order and is not required to execute your order at the price that you were quoted.

Each order that you make is binding on you even where you have exceeded any limit on our platform, and you must pay any sums/commissions due on any transaction immediately once the transaction has been entered into.

One of the fundamentals of the Company is to obtain on a consistent basis the best possible result for the execution of your orders. When we execute orders on your behalf, we will take all sufficient steps to achieve the best possible result for you according to our order execution policy and subject to any specific instructions received from you. Our Order Execution Policy comprises a set of procedures that are designed to obtain the best possible execution result for you subject to and taking into account (a) the nature of your transactions, (b) the priorities you have identified to us in relation to entering into those transactions, and (c) the practices relating to the market in question, with the aim of producing a result which provides, in our view, the best balance across a range of sometimes conflicting factors.

In the presence of a material difficulty, the Company will ensure that it informs a retail client about any significant difficulty relevant to the proper carrying out of the relevant transaction promptly upon becoming aware of the difficulty. Nevertheless, you are responsible for monitoring your orders until they are confirmed or cancelled, as we may not provide you with explicit written notification.
